*When tomorrow starts without me And I'm not here to see
 If the sun should rise and find your eyes Are filled with tears for me
 I wish so much you wouldn't cry The way you did today
 While thinking of the many things We didn't get to say
 I know how much you love me As much as I love you
 And each time you think of me I know you'll miss me too
 But when tomorrow starts without me Please try to understand
 That an angel came and called my name And took me by the hand
 And said my place was ready In Heaven far above
 And that I'd have to leave behind All those I dearly love
 But when I walked through Heaven's gate I felt so much at home
 When God looked down and smiled at me From His great golden throne
 He said this is eternity And all I promised you
 Today your life on earth is past
 But here it starts anew I promise no tomorrow
 For today will always last And since each day's the same way
 There's no longing for the past So when tomorrow starts without me
 Don't think we're far apart For every time you think of me I'm right here in your heart*

The Obituary

Martha Omega McAllister was born December 25, 1957, in Saint Pauls, North Carolina to the late Fred D. Robeson, Sr. and Jennie V. Jones Robeson. She gained her heavenly wings on Tuesday, March 15, 2022. Martha attended Plainview Elementary School and Tar Heel High School in Tar Heel, North Carolina. She was a member of the Class of 1976 in which she was Valedictorian. She later obtained her Associates Degree from Robeson Technical College in Lumberton, North Carolina.

Martha was affectionately known as "Chuck" and "Aunt Chuck" by family, nieces and nephews and "Momma Mac" by the many students she impacted while working in various departments during her tenure at North Carolina Central University (NCCU). Prior to retiring in June 2017 she served as Administrative Assistant with the Theatre Department. Martha was employed by the NCCU for 30 years.

At an early age Martha joined Second New Light Baptist Church, Saint Pauls, North Carolina. After moving to Durham, North Carolina she joined Union Baptist Church.

She enjoyed spending time and traveling with her "Sisters in Love" Pam "Barney" Bond, Elaine "Laney Pooh" O'Neal, Nakia Kee Kee "Peaches" Jones, Ingrid "Dee" Walker and Jackie "Lil Jackie" Davis. They created many wonderful memories over the years.
