Homegoing Celebration Christina Ca Tajja Evans

"Love doesn't die with death. Love is like liquid; when it pours out, it seeps into others' lives.

Love changes form and shape. Love gets into everything. Death doesn't conquer all; love does.

Love wins every single time. Love wins by lasting through death. Love wins by loving more, loving again, loving without fear."

The Obituary

"I will endure a lifetime of missing you, for the privilege of loving you."

Christina C. Evans, 25, of Durham, NC, passed away on January 6th, 2024. She was affectionately known as Chris, Cat, Diva, Aunt Chris, and Mommy. She was born in Durham, NC in 1998 to Ronald Evans and Vanessa Mason-Evans, who they loved and spoiled. She was the youngest of two siblings, Cyntell Allen and Courtney Evans.

Christina was the life of the party and her wit would keep you on your toes. She enjoyed traveling, social gatherings with friends, and writing poetry. Christina and her friends (turned sisters); Ashaya Jansen, Alexis Jones, Daysia Robinson and Christa Carter, were practically inseparable throughout their lives. From piano recitals, step team, to traveling and starting families, they were together through it all.

Christina attended Hillside New Tech before studying Mass Communications at Clark Atlanta University. During her time there, she developed a reputation for her modeling and outgoing style of fashion. When she returned home to North Carolina, she started her own skin care business, SkynOrganix. Which lead her to a new found passion of professional beauty and wellness. In 2023, she attended Elevate Salon Institute under the care and guidance of Ms. Downing. She completed her studies and earned her Esthetician License from the State of North Carolina. Though she loved socializing with friends, traveling, and developing her business, Christina's favorite role was that as a parent. She treasured her time with her daughter, Shiloh Cobb, and loved being her "momma", never failing to shower her with love or introduce her to the world of fashion.

God hath not promised
 Skies always blue,
 Flower-strewn pathways
 All our lives through;
 God hath not PROMISED
 Sun without rain,
 Joy without sorrow,
Peace without pain.

But God hath promised
 Strength for the day,
 Rest for the labor,
 Light for the way,
Grace for the trials,
 Help from above,
 Unfailing sympathy,
 UNDYING LOVE.

Our Father

Who art in heaven,
 hallowed be Thy name.
 Thy kingdom come,
 Thy will be done on earth,
 as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread,
 and forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those who trespass against us.
 And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.
 For Thine is the kingdom,
 the power, and the glory,
 forever and ever.

Amen

In Loving Memory
